

I do not agree with allowing cell phone use on commercial aircraft.

The inability to escape the conversations is not available. I can envision public rage from inconsiderate users and even physical violence from those who cannot get away from rude callers.

This is NOT a good idea and I am a staunch advocate of no cell phones on Aircraft. One only need to experience the noise before the phones are currently banned to see how it will be in flight. No No NO